

VISION

The vision is to create a functional, globally competitive & research-focused department, but responsive to the needs of the society, while delivering world-class education and knowledge.

MISSION

The mission of the department is to place it in the forefront of Research and development, Innovation, Knowledge Transfer and Human Resource Development in the global academic field.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

To, provide a specialized high quality education for professional positions in business, industry, academic and government.

To use traditional and modern instructional techniques and technology to the best advantage in the delivery system.

To offer regular educational programmes, only on campus to students.

To provide educational opportunities to persons already employed or engaged in business allowing them to pursue regular degree U.G. & P.G. programmes without any compromise on the quality education.

To pursue innovations and develop new methods and technologies for delivery of education.

To use modern information technology to the maximum extent possible in all phases of the academic as well as administrative aspects of the university programmes.

To offer high quality programmes for training and development of management skills to enhance corporate productivity and efficiency.

To improve the quality, talent and skills of individuals to help them lead their lives as successful professionals and responsible citizen.

To explore the frontiers of knowledge through independent research, as well as in collaboration with other entities in business or education having similar goals.

To aggressively pursue improvements in the quality of higher education through dedication and commitment to teaching, training and research.

To undertake such programmes and activities as are essential to or supportive of the achievement of the above listed objectives.

To help develop industry by extending consultancy services.